

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, August 8. 1706.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated August 13.

Rome, July 24.

Signior Caffarelli is declar'd Governour of this City in the Room of Cardinal Palavicini, and is still to retain his Office of Auditor of the Rota. Signior Filippucci, who refus'd the Cardinalship, died on Monday last; the next Day his Obsequies were perform'd with the same Ceremonies as are observ'd for Cardinals, and the Pope gave Order, that (contrary to Custom) his Corpse should be carried close by the Quirinal Palace, to the Church of St. John Latran, where his Funeral Sermon was preach'd on the Words mention'd in our former. To Day Cardinal Grimani had his first Audience of the Pope. A small Vessel from Barcelona, is arriv'd in 11 Days at Civita Vecchia, with Letters for the Imperial Court, which were to have been put ashore at Genoa, but the Vessel to escape a Neapolitan Privateer was forc'd to put into Civita Vecchia, whence the Letters are forwarded over Land to Vienna.

Genoa, July 27. The Dutchess Royal of Savoy, who arriv'd here some Days ago, with the Dutchess Dowager and the Princes her Sons, keeps incognito under the Name of the Marchioness de Sales: She has return'd Thanks to the Senate for the good Reception and Entertainment she has from them. We have Advice from Barcelona, that King Charles III. is arriv'd at Saragossa, and that 2 Grandees of Spain are come thither to him, to invite him to hasten to Madrid there to receive the Homage of the Grandees and People.

Venice, July 31. On Wednesday last, Collonel Richards arriv'd here from Barcelona, whence he came the 13th of this Month, with Letters from King Charles for the Queen of England and the States General. He is gone on from hence for Holland. 'Tis advis'd from the Ferrareze, that the Troops command'd by the Princes of Wirtemberg and Darmstadt and by Count Harach, having joyn'd Prince Eugene on the other Side of the Po, 2 Bodies were detach'd towards the Panaro, one under Collonel Patte, who possess'd himself of Finale, the other under M. de St. Amour, who march'd to Bondeno 7 Miles below Finale, and at first was repuls'd by the French, but being reforc'd by another Body, he at last made himself Master of that Passage; so that the Army continued their March over the Panaro, with 55 Pieces of Cannon. These Advices add, that a Cartel is agreed between the 2 Armies, and that the Duke of Orleans has withdrawn the Troops he had in the Secchia, and order'd them to march towards Stradella. In the mean time Prince Eugene having continued his March towards Modena, has dispatch'd an Express to Bologna, whither the Duke of Modena retir'd some time since, to invite him to his Camp, that he may restore him to the Possession of his Dukedom, which is now almost intirely quitted by the French.

Milan, July 31. The Marshal de Marlin is with the Duke of Orleans, to observe the Motions of the Imperialists. Since Prince Eugene pass'd the Adige and the Panaro, he has extended his Troops into the Modeneze, waiting to be joyn'd by the Hessians. These Motions of the Imperialists have caus'd a great Consternation at Mantua, whence several Persons have withdrawn themselves, and 'tis said the Duke and Dutchess of that Name think of retiring. The Alarm is as great in the Territories of the D. of Parma.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated August 14.

Vienna, July 31. The Malecontents of Hungary have seiz'd and carried off several hundred head of Cattle out of the Neighbourhood of Raab, and threaten to besiege that important Place. 'Tis talk'd that to Day the Body of Troops command'd by Count Guido Staremberg will be joyn'd by 7000 Croats led by Count Palfi Ban of Croatia; that General Nehm with a strong Body of Rascals is to take Possession of the Posts between Buda and Gran, to keep open the Navigation of the Danube, that Provisions and other Necessaries for the Emperor's Troops may be from time to time sent down it; and that in the mean while General Rabutin will march out of Transilvania into Upper Hungary. General Nehm is likewise to endeavour to drive the Malecontents (who are now still Rebels agen) out of the Island of Schut. This Court use great Endeavours to get the Bishop of Osnabrug chosen Bishop of Munster.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, Aug. 13.

From the Camp at Estlingen, August 6. Three Regiments are detach'd from our Army, 1 of Horse, and 2 of Dragoons, for Hungary; and 'tis said they are to be follow'd by 3 others, viz. 2 of Cuirassiers and 1 of Foot, so that we shall be inferior to the Enemy in Horse, but something superiour in Foot, Part of which is encamp'd between Stollhoffen and Higelheim. Most of our Horse is encamp'd about Mulberg. His Highness the Prince of Baden waits only for Leave from his Imperial Majesty to go to the Baths of Swalbach; and then General Thungen will command our Army.

Hague, August 13. The King of Prussia has fix'd Monday next for his Departure: The Princess Dowager of Nassau Friseland has been here some Days; but the Accommodation of the Differences about the Succession of the late K. William has not been at all advanc'd by his Prussian Majesty's and Her coming hither personally. The States have written a Letter to the Court of Vienna, touching his Imperial Majesty's excluding of the Bishop of Paderborn from being elected Bishop of Munster; they have also written Letters about it to several Electors, Bishops, and Princes of Germany, representing to them the dangerous gerous Consequences of such an Exclusion to their Rights. The Bishop of Paderborn's Party is newly encreas'd by 2 Voices more. Letters of the 11th Instant from the Camp before Menin, say, the Town is wholly ruin'd, that they hop'd to be Masters of the Counterscarp to Day, after which 'twas suppos'd the Place would soon surrender. Letters from the hereditary Prince of Hesse Cassel dated the 3d of this Month, say Prince Eugene had left 7000 Men on the Adige, with 6 Field Pieces, that the Van of the Hessian Troops were arriv'd near Verona, but that the rest would not all come up till the 10th.

Portsmouth, August 6. Last Night Sir Cloudsley Shovel with the Men of War and Transport Ships came into St. Hellens Road again; the Wind being then at W. S. W. and the Dutch are not yet in sight of this Place.
